Thieves steal specialty vehicle

Port Orchard, Wash. -- Want to make the holidays a little brighter for a disabled veteran? The Kitsap County Sheriff's Office is asking the general public for assistance in locating and returning a specialty van belonging to a 49 year-old handicapped Army vet, after thieves stole the vehicle during the night from his South Kitsap residence.

The vehicle was taken between 11:00 p.m. Monday night and 7:50 a.m. this morning from a residence in the 3600 block of SW Huckleberry Road.

Vehicle description:

Year / make / model: 1999 Dodge Caravan

Color: Candy apple red

License: 344-SDA (Washington). The license is surrounded by a "U. S. Army Retired" license plate frame.

Side passenger window decal that reads: "Do not park within 8 feet."

Equipment:

- Luggage rack.
- Handicap specialty vehicle ground effects kit installed.
- Sliding side door wheelchair ramp kit installed.

Should anyone see this vehicle on the road, or know of its whereabouts, please contact your local law enforcement agency or the Kitsap County Sheriff's Office at (360) 337-7101.

Photographs of a similarly equipped Dodge Caravan are attached.
