

OUR PURPOSE...

TO HELP OLDER PERSONS REMAIN AS INDEPENDENT AS THEY WANT FOR AS LONG AS THEY CAN.

Organizational Values

- Promote client independence
- Respect diversity and ensure equal access
- Involve people in decisions
- Act with personal and professional integrity
- Pursue excellence in service
- Use public and private resources responsibly
- Continuously advance innovation and quality improvements
- Work cooperatively on issues of aging and disability

Kitsap County
Aging & Long Term Care Services

Special Information for:

Provided by:

SENIOR INFORMATION & ASSISTANCE

1026 Sidney Avenue
Suite 105
Port Orchard, WA 98366

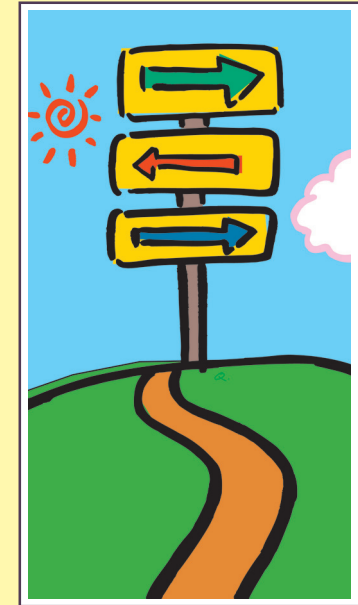

8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Monday - Friday

360-337-5700
1-800-562-6418

A program of Kitsap County Aging & Long Term Care Services, funded by the Older Americans Act and Senior Citizens Services Act. Senior Information & Assistance services are available at no charge to all persons who are at least 60 years of age, without discrimination and regardless of handicap, in accordance with state and federal laws.

Senior Information & Assistance

Where to turn...

...for Answers on Aging

Kitsap County Board of Commissioners

Answers on Aging

Q When you have questions about aging and available senior services, Kitsap County's Senior Information & Assistance is here to help. Senior Information & Assistance provides professional consultation and access to social and health services to help seniors live safely, with dignity, in the least restrictive way.

A When you have questions about options for seniors, our caring professional staff will provide:

- Information and referral to local services
- Advocacy and support to obtain public benefits
- Assistance with applications
- Individual, family, and public education on aging issues

Senior Information & Assistance

Help starts with just one phone call.

360-337-5700
1-800-562-6418

Senior Information & Assistance offers a confidential, one stop service and easy access to community resources. Our services are free! Call to schedule a home visit or drop in at the Givens Community Center located at 1026 Sidney Avenue, Suite 105, in Port Orchard.

We can help seniors to continue living independently through:

Case Management

Our professional Case Managers can:

- ➔ Assess self-care abilities and needs
- ➔ Identify options to meet those needs
- ➔ Work with you and your family to design an individualized package of services
- ➔ Coordinate services and provide support
- ➔ Reassess and modify plans as your needs change
- ➔ Provide informational brochures, booklets, video, or web resources specific to your needs
- ➔ Assist families with their aging issues

Information & Referral

- ➔ In-home care
- Health care
- Legal services
- Nutrition
- Chore services
- Counseling
- Employment assistance
- Financial assistance
- Preventive care
- Housing options
- Transportation
- Long term care
- Social activities
- Volunteer opportunities