

County Administrator's Briefing Notes

10:00 AM Monday – July 7, 2008

Port Blakely Conference Room

What are we asking for?
Why is it important?
Is it realistic?

Draft Number: 1 (Subject to Change)

Attendance: Steve Bauer, Chair; Commissioner Josh Brown, Nancy Buonanno Grennan, County Administrator; Shelley Kneip, Prosecutors Office; Jim Bolger, Assistant Director; Patty Charnas, Keith Folkerts, Tina Holguin, and Dave Greetham, Department of Community Development; Art Castle, Home Builders Association; BrynN Grimley, The Kitsap Sun; Vivian Henderson, Danny Horovitz, Ted Hunter and Kimberly Allen, Sound Law Center; Steve Causseaux and Debbie Austin, Administrative Specialist.

10:00

1. APPROVE NOTES FROM THE AM. BRIEF June 2, 2008

Action: Minutes approved as written.

10:10

2. SEPA INFORMATION WORKSHOP (Dave Greetham, Patty Charnas, Shelley, Kneip, Jim Bolger)

Action: Jim Bolger introduced the workshop on the State Environmental Policy Act and discussed the handouts distributed. Shelley Kneip reviewed the history of SEPA and it's relationship to the Department of Ecology and the Growth Management Act. She discussed the conditions and the multiple considerations taken in the SEPA process. She gave examples through historical case studies involving Kitsap County and other Washington counties. Dave Greetham discussed a hypothetical case study and went through the process of conducting a SEPA with all of the considerations that are addressed. A question and answer session ensued between the Commissioners and Community Development personnel regarding policy questions.

11:15 SEVEN MINUTE BREAK

11:22

2. INTERVIEW HEARING EXAMINER CANDIDATES

Action: 1) Ted Hunter and Kimberly Allen

Ted Hunter and Kimberly Allen from Sound Law Center held a question and answer session on the qualifications and the process that Sound Law Center would bring to the position of Hearing Examiner for Kitsap County.

2) Stephen K. Causseaux, Jr.

Stephen Causseaux, Jr. held a question and answer session on the qualifications and the process he would bring to the position of Hearing Examiner for Kitsap County.

12:35
Adjourn

G:\COM\DATA\Agenda BOCC Wkly Briefs\Monday Morning Briefing\2008\Notes\7-7-08.doc