2. DEFENDANT’S WAIVER OF RIGHTS

2.1 Waiver Of Time For Trial. Defendant understands that Defendant has the right to be tried within ninety (90) days following the “commencement date” as defined in (CrRLJ 3.3(c)(2)(i)), and that if Defendant does not receive a trial within this time period the case may be dismissed with prejudice. Defendant understands that Defendant has a right to trial by (date) _____.

Defendant gives up that right and agrees to a new commencement date of 10 years from the date this Agreement is entered. The last allowable date for trial will be 90 days after the new commencement date.

2.2 Waiver Of Jury Trial. Defendant understands that Defendant has the right to trial by jury unless Defendant waives (gives up) the right to a jury trial (CrRLJ 6.1.1(a)). Defendant hereby waives Defendant’s jury trial right, and requests that Defendant’s guilt or innocence be decided by a judge.

2.3 Waiver Of Rights And Waiver Of Objection To Any Evidence Presented. Defendant understands that Defendant has the right to contest and object to evidence presented against Defendant. Should Defendant be found to be in violation of this Agreement, Defendant gives up the right to contest or object to any evidence presented against Defendant at any future hearings, whether or not such evidence is a part of the Court’s record at the time of entry of this Agreement. Defendant also understands that Defendant has the right to present evidence on Defendant’s own behalf. Defendant waives (gives up) the right to present evidence on Defendant’s own behalf as to Defendant’s guilt or innocence regarding the underlying charge(s). Defendant understands that evidence will be presented against Defendant at a future hearing and Defendant understands that the judge will review that evidence in determining Defendant’s guilt or innocence.

Defendant understands that, by this process, Defendant is waiving (giving up) the constitutional right to a jury trial, the right to hear and question witnesses, the right to call witnesses on Defendant’s own behalf, the right to testify or not to testify, the right to remain silent, the right to challenge the admissibility of statements Defendant has made, the right to challenge physical, oral or identification evidence, or any other evidence, and the right to assert any claim of privilege, including but not limited to the following privileges – spousal and/or marital (RCW 5.60.060); physician-patient (RCW 5.60.060); clergy-penitent (RCW 5.60.060); psychologist-client (RCW 18.83.110); registered nurse (RCW 5.62.020); and counselor (RCW 18.19.180), and the right to challenge on appeal the sufficiency of facts contained in the written reports admitted as evidence and used to convict Defendant.

Defendant understands that this Agreement by itself is not an admission of guilt but agrees not to contest the sufficiency of the evidence necessary to convict Defendant and understands and agrees that if Defendant is found in breach of this Agreement and a guilt determination is later held, the judge will determine whether Defendant is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt based only on the State’s evidence.

Upon the filing by the State of a Motion to Revoke this Agreement, the parties shall request the Court to set a hearing date within approximately thirty (30) days of the filing of the motion, unless the State otherwise allows, so that the Court may promptly determine whether a violation has occurred.

Kessler*, 75 Wn.App. 634, 879 P.2d 333 (1994), and that when determining guilt or innocence the judge may look beyond the confines of the Defendant’s court file and may consider evidence found in the Defendant’s Washington State Department of Licensing driving abstract, in the Washington State Judicial Information System (including access through the Judicial Access Browser System), and in the Statewide Electronic Collision and Ticket Online Records.
