PREMERA PRIVACY POLICY AND NOTIFICATION PRACTICES

We may collect, use, or disclose personal information about you, including health information, your address, telephone number or Social Security number. We may receive this information from, or release it to, health-care providers, insurance companies, or other sources to conduct our routine business operations such as: underwriting and determining your eligibility for benefits and paying claims; coordinating benefits with other health-care plans; conducting care management, case management, or quality reviews. This information may also be collected, used or released as required or permitted by law.

To safeguard your privacy and ensure your information remains confidential, we train all employees on our written confidentiality policy and procedures. If a disclosure of your personal information is not related to a routine business function, we will remove anything that could be used to easily identify you, unless we have your prior authorization to release such information.

You have the right to request inspection and/or amendment of your records retained by us.

To view or print copies of our detailed Privacy Notice and other forms, please visit our web site at www.premera.com. To have forms mailed to you, please call the number below.

SPECIAL ENROLLMENT RIGHTS

If you are declining enrollment for yourself or your dependents (including your spouse) because of other health insurance coverage, you may be able to enroll yourself or your dependents in this plan at a future date, provided that you request enrollment within 30 days after your other coverage ends. In addition, if you have a new dependent as a result of marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption, you may be able to enroll yourself and your dependents, provided that you request enrollment within 30 days after the marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption, unless a different time limit has been specified in your benefit booklet.

LATE ENROLLEES

A "Late Enrollee" is an individual or family dependent who did not enroll when first eligible for coverage under this plan and does not qualify as a Special Enrollee. If you or your dependents are Late Enrollees, you or your dependents may enroll during the next occurring Annual Group Enrollment Period.

PRE-EXISTING CONDITION WAITING PERIOD

Your plan includes a waiting period for pre-existing conditions. A pre-existing condition is a condition, regardless of cause, for which medical advice, diagnosis, care or treatment was recommended or received in a period of time that ends on your "enrollment date." This "look-back" period is 6 months if your employer has 50 or fewer employees or 3 months if your employer has more than 50 employees. The "enrollment date" is the employee's date of hire for an employee and eligible dependents who enroll when the employee is first eligible. If an employee is transferring from an ineligible class of employees, the enrollment date is the date the employee entered the eligible class. For everyone else, the enrollment date is the date coverage starts. Your waiting period for pre-existing conditions will be 9 months from your enrollment date if your employer has 50 or fewer employees or 3 months if your employer has more than 50 employees.

Please check with your employer if you have a question regarding the total number of employees in your company.

Benefits won't be provided for pre-existing conditions until after your coverage becomes effective and your waiting period for pre-existing conditions has been met. The length of your waiting period for pre-existing conditions may be reduced by periods of "creditable" coverage (see below) you've accrued under other health care plans prior to your enrollment date for this plan. You'll receive credit for prior creditable coverage that occurred without a break in coverage of more than 3 months. Any coverage you had before a break in coverage which exceeds 3 months isn't credited toward your waiting period for pre-existing conditions.

Please complete the prior coverage information in section 3 of the enrollment form or attach a copy of the Certificate of Creditable Coverage you received from your prior insurance carrier to this application. If you do not have a Certificate of Creditable Coverage, or have misplaced it, you have the right to request one from a prior employer or health carrier within 24 months of the date your coverage under that plan terminated. If you need help to obtain creditable coverage information from your prior plan or prior insurance carrier, please call us at the number listed below and we will help you. If prior coverage information is not provided, the full waiting period will apply.

CREDITABLE COVERAGE

"Creditable Coverage" means prior or ongoing health care coverage including any group health care coverage (including the Federal Employees Health Benefits Plan and the Peace Corps), individual health care coverage (including student health plans), Medicare, Medicaid, CHAMPUS, Indian Health Service or tribal organization coverage, state high-risk pool coverage, state Children's Health Insurance Programs (SCHIP), a public health plan established or maintained by a State, the U.S. government, a foreign country, or any political subdivision of a State, the U.S. government, or a foreign country that provides health coverage to individuals who are enrolled in the plan.
