Install larger fish-passable culvert (approximate size is 25 feet wide).

This alternative will require some form of grade control to prevent 'head-cutting' of the channel. Grade control features might be log or rock weirs, boulder riffles, or steepened channel.