Level III offender: whereabouts unknown

Port Orchard, Wash. -- Kitsap County Sheriff's detectives are asking for assistance from the general public in locating a level III registered sex offender who has failed to meet sex offender registration requirements.

Bruce Allen Lee, age 61, is registered to an address in the 600 block of Washington Avenue, within the city limits of Bremerton. He has not been physically contacted or seen at this address recently. Officers attempt periodic check-ups with registered sex offenders to verify that residency information is current and accurate.

Description: white male, 6' 03" tall, 170 lbs. weight, gray hair and blue eyes.

Date of photograph: 06/02/2006

Criminal history: Lee was convicted in 1987 of rape, 1st degree, after physically and sexually abusing a woman held captive over a two day period.

He has prior convictions for assault, 2nd degree, after stabbing a man with a knife; for aggravated assault with a weapon, after striking a woman with a metal pipe; and for kidnapping, after he broke into the residence of his ex-spouse, forced her out of the house and into his car. While fleeing the state, he stopped several times to assault the woman. Lee wasn't convicted of that offense until seven years later as he had fled from prosecution.

While incarcerated Lee committed 14 major violations of inmate conduct regulations, including threats, strong-arming and destroying property. He was released from prison on May 27, 2006 after being in custody since August 1987.

It is believed that Lee may be staying in the Gig Harbor / Key Peninsula area of Pierce County in the company of a woman named "Toni."

Persons with information about Bruce Allen Lee are asked to contact Detective Lt. Earl Smith at (360) 337-5610 or Detective Doug Dillard at (360) 337-5617.
