Community Notification: Level III Sex Offender

Port Orchard, Wash. – The Kitsap County Sheriff’s Office is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550, and a Washington State Supreme Court decision in State vs. Ward, regarding public notification of the anticipated residency of convicted sexual offenders.

“The person who is named in this advisory has been convicted of criminal offenses that require registration with the sheriff’s office in the county of residence,” said Sheriff Steve Boyer. “Further, his previous criminal history places him in a classification level that reflects the potential to re-offend.”

Name: Robert Curtis Brueger, white male, age 33.

Residence location: Brueger will be residing at a residence in the 25000 block of Pioneer Way NW, Poulsbo.

Description: 5’ 10” ht., 250 lbs. wt., brown-colored hair and brown-colored eyes.

Community meeting: There will be a community notification meeting, concerning Brueger, at 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, July 15, 2008, at American Legion Post #245 / Bredablik Hall, 26580 Bredablik Place NW, Poulsbo.

Criminal history: According to court documents, Brueger was convicted in 1990 of 1st degree child rape and two counts of 1st degree child molestation.

When Brueger was age 15 he raped his six year-old half-sister and sexually molested an 11 year-old boy.

He was convicted of indecent exposure in 1995 after following two women to their vehicle and exposing himself to them. He also attempted to forcefully gain access to the interior of the vehicle as the women drove away.

Brueger has admitted to sexually molesting an 11 year-old girl and a handicapped adult woman.

He has been evaluated as a high risk to re-offend.

This notification is not intended to increase fear; rather, an informed public is a safer public.

The Sheriff's Office has no legal authority to direct where a registered sex offender may or may not reside. Unless court-ordered restrictions exist, registered offenders are constitutionally free to live wherever they choose.

Sexual offenders have always lived within our communities. It wasn't until passage of legislation entitled the "Community Protection Act of 1990," which mandates sex offender registration, that civil authorities even knew where they were living.

Abuse of information provided through the sex offender notification process, in order to intimidate, harass or threaten registered offenders, will result in an investigation and the filing of criminal charges against the perpetrators. Such abuse could potentially end law enforcement's ability to conduct community notifications. The only person who 'wins,' if community notification is halted, is the registered sex offender, as sexual offenders derive their power through secrecy.

As of this date, there are 20,193 sex offenders who have registered as required and are living in the State of Washington. Of this number, 492 are living in locations within the unincorporated areas of Kitsap County, while 230 offenders are living within the limits of incorporated municipalities in the county and 91 are in jail or prison.

The Sheriff's Community Resource Officer, Deputy Pete Ball, is available to assist communities in establishing block or neighborhood watch programs and to provide the public with information on personal safety. He may be contacted at (360) 337-7074.

For further information on registered sex offenders in Kitsap County, please contact Detective Doug Dillard at (360) 337-5617.
