Home invasion shooting suspect charged

Ref: KCSO news release #09-052, dated Oct. 5, 2009

Port Orchard, Wash. -- The 26 year-old East Bremerton man suspected of forcing entry into a Navy Yard City residence Saturday morning and shooting and injuring a 31 year-old man, was formally charged in court this afternoon.

Appearing at 3:00 p.m. before the Honorable Sally Olsen, Kitsap County Superior Court Judge, Moreau Augustas Nauden was charged with assault, 1st degree (with a firearms enhancement) by the Kitsap County Prosecutor.

If convicted, Nauden faces a sentencing range of 10 years to 13.33 years incarceration with the Washington State Department of Corrections, plus an additional five years for the firearms enhancement.

Nauden remains in jail on $1.5 million bail.
