Search underway for missing East Bremerton woman

Port Orchard, Wash. -- The Kitsap County Sheriff's search and rescue (SAR) unit has initiated a SAR mission for an East Bremerton woman who is now considered endangered and missing from the family home.

Sheriff's SAR deputies are requesting assistance from the public.

Kara Lynn Radabah, age 19, was last seen around 6:00 p.m., Thursday, May 13, in the campground area of Illahee State Park, 3540 NE Bahia Vista Drive, East Bremerton, during the course of an initial search by family members. Radabah had left home unexpectedly.

Radabah was diagnosed with Schizophrenia within the past year. She is being cared for at home. The family residence is located close to Illahee State Park. Recently Radabah stopped taking her prescribed medications and has been acting delusional.
