

For Immediate Release:

Saturday, Dec. 11, 2010

Joint Media Release:

Kitsap County Sheriff's Office

Washington State Patrol

Bremerton Police Department

KCSO news release #10-058 / 125

Pursuit suspect identified

Port Orchard, Wash. -- The Kitsap County Coroner's Office has confirmed the identity of the man found deceased from an apparent gunshot injury, after a confrontation with police following a vehicle and foot pursuit that occurred late last night.

The suspect has been identified as Kyle L. K. Hoapili, age 27, with a last known address in Port Orchard.

Hoapili was wanted on an outstanding felony warrant of arrest for escape, issued by the Washington State Department of Corrections.

The county's forensic pathologist will conduct an autopsy that is presently scheduled for Monday morning. The Kitsap County Coroner will make a determination as to cause and manner of death.

The Washington State Patrol, as primary investigative agency, continues with its investigation into the death of Mr. Hoapili. Any release of information concerning details of the investigation remains under the purview of the state patrol.

###