

Minutes for MCAC meeting January 7, 2020

The meeting was called to order at 6:35 by Carol Malmquist.

Members in attendance included: Carol Malmquist, Kari Kaltenborn Corey, Scott Billingsley, Paul Nuchims, Denise Burbidge, Carrilu Thompson

Absent: Bob Cairns (excused), Mark McKay, Rachelle Byrd

Jennifer Haro representing Kitsap County

Guests included: Ray Pardo, Robin Williams, Ken Ransier

The minutes for the November MCAC meeting were voted on. Denise made a motion to approve and Paul seconded. The minutes passed as written.

Discussion about the upcoming Open House on March 3, 2020 took place. Besides representation from several county departments the police, fire department, State Park, MCA, FOML and the port and water district are being invited to attend.

The 2020 Work Plan for the MCAC was adopted with only one change and that was the addition under Land Use Issues. Added was participation in zoning use table updates. Scott motioned and Paul seconded. A vote was taken and passed.

Carrilu and Kari discussed their attendance at the workshops for the preliminary meetings for changes to the zoning. Because there is so much to digest time will be taken at the February meeting to further discuss issues that will affect Manchester.

Scott discussed ideas for his group's proposal for a trail in Manchester. He will be meeting with the MCA who will be sponsoring his permit. Their meeting is the last Tuesday in January which is the 28th.

Carrilu talked about the success of the tree lighting saying it was well attended and the dedication to Carole Leininger was a sweet reminder of all that Carole did for and in the community. She will be missed.

Ray Pardo discussed his involvement with the Transportation Improvement Program that is meeting tomorrow night at county offices from 6 to 8. He also mentioned that there are many people who walk at dusk and in the dark with dark clothing suggesting that reflective clothing would save lives.

The next MCAC meeting will be held Tuesday February 4th at 6:30 pm in the library.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Carol Malmquist". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.