Minutes of the May 7, 2019 MCAC Meeting
Manchester Library
6:30 pm

The meeting was called to order by Carol Malmquist at 6:33 pm

Members in attendance: Carol Malmquist, Frank Gilbert, Scott Billingsley, Paul Nuchims, Carrilu Thompson, Denise Burbidge, Kari Corey, Bob Cairns, Hailee Boyd

County staff: Jennifer Haro

Guests: Ray Pardo, Jerry Clark, Laura Mackerras, Scott Mackerras, Linda Brad Hauge, Carol Kowalski, Robin Williams,

Meeting began with a recap of the All-CAC meeting, held April 29. Carrilu gave a general explanation which consisted of the group discussing minutes, agendas, public meeting act, ideas on how to get the word out about the meetings, and outside representation. The groups were different based on the different populations and locations that they serve. There was discussion about the difficulty with communication and chair email problems, which lead to the suggestion of creating a Gmail account for the files, minutes, etc. of MCAC.

The proposed Helen Robinson walkway and trail proposal was discussed by Ray Pardo. Sixty percent of walkways are not actually safe for walking. The Trail Committee is in need of more volunteers to get more involved, and Ray passed around a sign-up sheet for those that would like to be involved.

Frank brought up the April 27-28 Friends of the Library Plant Sale. It broke the records for not only book sales but plant sales.

Carrilu said that Earth Day was the most successful yet. She also mentioned an agenda item for next meeting, the issue of car vandalism in the neighborhood and to discuss how to report it, and having a possible representative from the Sheriff's Office to discuss at the next meeting.

Carol Kowalski explained there are many block watch systems that she is a part of and have been looking out for the vandalism issue. Then she mentioned the kids 4th of July parade again, because of its massive growth over the years.

Another idea discussed was the possibility of having a disaster preparation representative and a disaster response representative for next meeting.
