II. Business Items

Manchester Community Advisory Council

Carrilu posted on the ManchesterWA.org webpage a Save the Date for the August 6th 10-4 Flea market event.

Ana shared the Boaters App that she has reached out to and asked to have the Port of Manchester added too.

Amber shared that she has not received any additional information about the Electric Bike addition.

Janelle shared about needing a new flyer advertising the MCAC at the Post office. Will work with Jennifer to get them printed.

III. Announcements and Public Comments

Nick A'Zar asked about homelessness and what is being done to address this issue.

Crystal Battle shared she is glad we are thinking about "How to make Manchester Successful". She is concerned about what will happen in the community with homelessness and the shelter on Mile Hill.

Carrilu asked about how more flexibility within zoning could affect our community. Also, advocated for the MCAC to be part of the decision making and not being told about it after the fact.

Janelle asked about how the possible changes to zoning and are they property owner driven, or resident driven.

The next MCAC meeting will be June 7, maybe in person depending on COVID and the availability of the library.

Janelle Overton motions to adjourn the meeting Amber Seconds. Passed unanimously. Meeting Adjourned 7:45 p.m.
