

REFLECTION, RENEWAL, & RADICAL JOY

Kitsap County's 30th Annual Conference for Human Rights

Friday, Dec 4, 2020 • 9:00 am - 4:00 pm • on Zoom

MORNING PLENARY ROUNDTABLE

Janel Mcfeat

Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe
The Welcome Home Program
Re-entry Project Mgr./Strategic Planner

Karen Vargas

BISD Multicultural Advisory Council
Living Life Leadership
Living Arts Cultural Heritage
Kitsap ERACE Coalition

Robin Little Wing Sigo, MSW (she/her/tsi)

Suquamish Tribal Council
Indigenous Social Worker
Suquamish Foundation
Researcher, Storyteller, Activist

Angela Flemming

Suquamish Foundation
Suquamish Tribe Research & Strategic Development Manager
Kitsap Professional Leaders of Color
Kitsap Racial Equity & Empowerment Fund

Annie Sayo (her/she/siya/e/lla)

Kitsap Advocating for Immigrant
Rights & Equality (KAIRE)

COLLECTIVISM & COLLABORATION

Pathways for Reflection, Renewal, and Radical Joy

in Our Human Rights Work

Favio Guzman

youth activist, organizer
Kitsap Advocating for Immigrant
Rights & Equality (KAIRE)

Derick Polk

Kitsap Showing Up for Racial Justice (SURJ)
Kitsap Equity, Race, and Community Engagement (ERACE) Coalition

Cristina Cervantes Roark (she/her/siya)

Kitsap Strong

Brenda Fantroy-Johnson (she/her)

Bainbridge Island Race Equity Task Force

These local advocates, activists, and organizers will gather around the (virtual) kitchen table for a deep dive into the meaning of collectivism and collaboration, in their own work for human rights and within movements. This roundtable will be followed by a facilitated Q&A/interactive discussion during mid-day sessions.

no charge but advance registration is required: <http://kcowa.us/hrc>