PLACE OF THE CLEAR SALT WATER

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT STATEMENT

“Every part of this soil is sacred in the estimation of my people. Every hillside, every valley, every plain and grove, has been hallowed by some sad or happy event in days long vanished.”

Chief Seattle 1854

We would like to begin by acknowledging that the land on which we gather is within the aboriginal territory of the suq^wabš “People of Clear Salt Water” (Suquamish People). Expert fisherman, canoe builders and basket weavers, the suq^wabš live in harmony with the lands and waterways along Washington’s Central Salish Sea as they have for thousands of years. Here, the suq^wabš live and protect the land and waters of their ancestors for future generations as promised by the Point Elliot Treaty of 1855.

WHAT ARE GROUP AGREEMENTS?

Group Agreements are something that a group usually crafts together. The point of Group Agreements is to articulate and practice ways of being together that align with a group's purpose, shared values, and desire to work in collaboration. Group Agreements generally focus on the ways we treat each other and work together as a collective body. For some groups, Group Agreements are a stand-alone tool. For other groups, Group Agreements are used in tandem with other tools, such as Robert's Rules of Order.

GROUP AGREEMENTS FROM JAN 2019 RETREAT OF KITSAP COUNTY COUNCIL FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

- Prevent cell phone interference with the meeting. If you can turn it off or silent it, that's great. If you need to keep it on, do so, of course. Just try to mitigate impact on the meeting.
- One speaker at a time, please. This helps make sure everyone can hear and be heard.
- Share the air. Be mindful of time. Both listen and speak with intention to understand.
- Allow for organic conversation. Generative dialogue is part of our collective process too.
- Allow for quiet too. Moments of silence can help us to reflect and gain understanding.
- Model and support self-care. Advocate for your, and others, authentic participation. Ask for clarification (words, concepts, etc.) as needed. Move around, take a break, get a drink, etc.
- Respect our collective and the individuals in it. There are multiple perspectives, world views, and truths present among us. Also, we have a shared accountability to our KCCHR Mission.
- Learn from history and be open to possibilities. Acknowledge past trends of KCCHR. Also, be open to new ideas, skills, and energy coming to KCCHR. Allow for group development.
