Thursday 9-12-19

PARTNER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Catalyst Charter school will be opening in the fall of 2020. They will be serving Kindergarten, First, Fifth and Sixth Grade. Monthly informational meetings are being held. The school is open to the public.
- The Kitsap County Fair was a huge success. Coalition members that had booths at the fair were able to provide prevention materials as well as the volunteers at the Sheriff's booth. Thank you so much for everyone's hard work making this a success.
- The SADD club is changing its name to "United." That has been the theme at Bremerton High School for a very long time and the club felt to stick to that. They will be keeping SADD as the umbrella for the club.
- Freedom 13 gave a presentation on trafficking. This included websites which are vulnerable to children, statistics and other vital information on how to keep our kids safe and what to look for.
- YWCA is offering training on Domestic Violence. If you would like training please contact the office.
- With the new vaping laws coming into effect the first of the year, organizations that serve the youth are working on formulating a plan to get kids off vaping, and how they will enforce the new law.
- Community surveys out. Please pass them to your community members, friends, neighbors so that we can get a good picture of what our community needs are.
- YMCA Teen Night, every Friday from 8:30pm-11:00pm, ages 14 to 18. If you are currently at the high school and have a school ID you can come.
- The coalition is working on their web-page. Resources and information is needed. Working to make the community a holistic. We need to bring more community to the table and will be working on ideas on how to get there.
- Recovery in the park was a huge success. Salish Recovery did an amazing job in putting it together. We hope to continue to make it bigger in years to come.
- New leadership in November. Will start look at nominations next month.
