For Emergency Help, Rescue Trail Markers are placed at trail intersections to identify your location in the park. In an Emergency, Dial 911 and give the dispatcher the Trail Rescue Marker Code nearest you. Example PG-A1

Pope Resources extends park patron usage on their lands. Please respect any posted closures.

Notice: In agreement with the acquisition of Pope Resources properties for the Heritage Park, Pope will conduct logging operations in many areas of the Park, and on their adjoining property. Please respect their property and operation rights, and check Pope and County Park websites for trail or Park closure information.

In collaboration with Kitsap County this park is maintained by volunteer stewards. The stewards assist with park planning and trail maintenance. You can assist them and make everyone’s visit more enjoyable by:
• Staying on developed trails
• Keeping dogs leashed so they don’t disturb other trail users or wildlife
• Following trail etiquette
• Packing out trash, including dog poop and disposing of it at home
• Additional Park information is available at on the Kitsap County Department’s website at: http://kitsapgov.com/parks

To report a problem or concern, please call: 1-800-532-0173 or email: parks@kitsap.gov

Port Gamble is an Unincorporated Community located within Kitsap County in Western Washington.

Port Gamble is a landmark of Kitsap County, with one of the oldest settlements in Washington State. It is located on a narrow peninsula, which once served as a port for the lumber industry. Today, Port Gamble is a historic village, home to the Port Gamble and the Port Gamble Historic Park. The park is a blend of urban and natural landscapes, with trails, parks, and historic buildings.

Port Gamble is known for its beautiful scenery and outdoor activities, including hiking, biking, and birdwatching. The park has over 20 miles of trails, ranging from easy to challenging, that wind through the forest, along the bay, and around the bluff. Visitors can also enjoy the views of the bay and the surrounding landscape.

Port Gamble is a popular destination for nature lovers and outdoor enthusiasts, and it offers a unique blend of history and natural beauty.
