Maintaining a place for sale or use of controlled substances Warrant search results in arrests

BREMERTON, Wash. -- Detectives with the Kitsap County Sheriff's Office Special Investigations Unit (SIU) and West Sound Narcotics Enforcement Team (WestNET) served a search warrant Wednesday on a residence in the 3300 block of Northlake Way NW, in the Central Kitsap area.

The sheriff's office has received numerous complaints about this property. Area residents have reported a significant amount of foot traffic in and out of the residence associated with suspected drug activity.

The residence was secured by the Kitsap County Regional SWAT team, which includes operators from Bainbridge Island police, Poulsbo police, and the sheriff's office. Eight subjects were detained initially.

Many used syringes, assorted drug paraphernalia, and methamphetamine were found in various locations throughout the residence.

The main suspect was identified as a 59-year-old male from Bremerton. He was arrested and booked into the Kitsap County Jail for "Maintaining a place or dwelling for the sale or use of a controlled substance." Bail was set at $100,000.

Three other subjects were booked on a multitude of charges and outstanding warrants. The charges included possession of a controlled substance, methamphetamine; an outstanding arrest warrant for assault 4th degree (domestic violence), and an arrest warrant for driving while license suspended.

SIU and WestNET were assisted by sheriff's patrol deputies, troopers from Washington State Patrol, District 8, and officers with the state department of corrections.
