Sheriff's Office searching for missing 'teen

SILVERDALE, Wash. -- Kitsap County sheriff's detectives are investigating the whereabouts of a Bremerton teenager who has been reported as missing by her family.

Investigators are searching for Hevi Muhaz Tahir, age 17, who last was seen Monday at Olympic High School. Her family became concerned when the young woman did not return home from school. See photograph, page 2.

Hevi's family located her vehicle, a 2000 Toyota Camry, parked at Silverdale Waterfront Park, 3337 NW Byron Street, Silverdale. The family notified Kitsap 911 early Tuesday morning and a sheriff's patrol deputy responded to take an initial report.

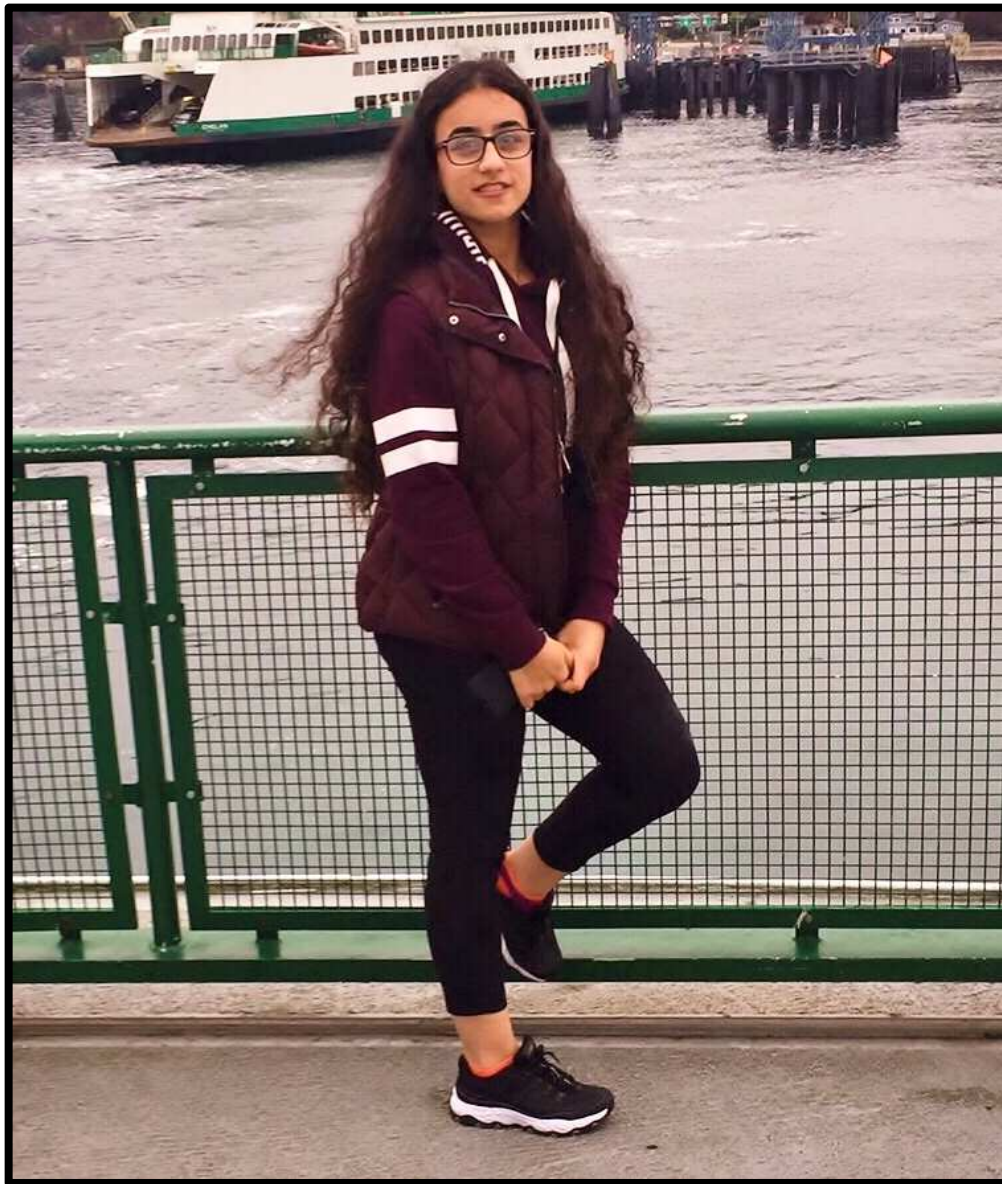

Due to the location where the vehicle was discovered, the initial search has focused on the waters of Dyes Inlet.

Sheriff's deputies assigned to the marine services unit (boat patrol) conducted a surface search of Dyes Inlet and the inlet's shoreline. Underwater search assistance was provided by divers from the Pierce County Sheriff's Department Metro Dive Team, while airborne search assistance was provided by a MH-65 Dolphin helicopter from U. S. Coast Guard Sector Puget Sound.

The investigation continues. Future searches of West Sound waters will be part of investigative planning.

Persons with information concerning this missing 'teen are asked to contact Sheriff's Detective Krista Kleinfelder, 360.337.7117, or Kitsap 911.
