South Kitsap gun store

UPDATE: second burglary suspect arrested

PORT ORCHARD, Wash. -- A King County man was arrested Thursday afternoon in conjunction with the on-going investigation into the April 29 burglary to a South Kitsap gun store.

Charles Wilbur-Williams III, age 20, from the City of Black Diamond, was arrested around 2:30 p.m. without incident by deputy marshals with the U. S. Marshals Service Fugitive Task Force.

Kitsap County Sheriff's detectives responded to Black Diamond and took custody of Wilbur-Williams. He was booked into the Kitsap County Jail on an outstanding arrest warrant for burglary, 1st degree and theft of a firearm.

The warrant was issued July 19 out of Kitsap County Superior Court.

Bail was set at $750,000.

Wilbur-Williams is the second suspect apprehended in this investigation into the forced entry and theft of approximately 90 handguns and rifles from Boerner's Firearms, located on State Highway 3 West in the Gorst area of South Kitsap.

The first arrest occurred June 20 when 17-year-old Chrissayn Jay Louis Borwieck was arrested in Las Vegas by the U. S. Marshals Service Fugitive Task Force and Las Vegas Metro Police Department.

Following-up on a tip, investigators located Borwieck around the Hooters Hotel and Casino near Las Vegas Boulevard. He was arrested without incident and was unarmed.

Borwieck soon will be extradited back to Kitsap County.

There are possible rewards up to $11,000 being offered by three agencies.

Detectives continue to seek assistance from anyone who knows Borwieck and his associates, Information about those involved in the burglary, or anyone who has information about the stolen handguns.
